Introduction

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed interim statement of financial position of Arab Bank for Investment and Foreign Trade PJSC (the "Bank") as at 30 September 2023 and the related condensed interim statements of comprehensive income for the three month and nine month then ended, and condensed interim statements of changes in equity and cash flows for the nine month period then ended, and other explanatory notes. The directors are responsible for the preparation and presentation of this condensed interim financial information in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34 – Interim Financial Reporting ("IAS 34"). Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this condensed consolidated interim financial information based on our review.

Scope of review

We conducted our review in accordance with the International Standard on Review Engagements 2410, "Review of interim financial information performed by the independent auditor of the entity." A review of condensed interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying condensed interim financial information is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34.

Forward Looking Information

The Bank incorporates forward-looking information into both the assessment of whether the credit risk of an instrument has increased significantly since its initial recognition and the measurement of ECL. The Bank formulates three economic scenarios: a base case, which is the median scenario assigned a 40% probability of occurring (31 December 2022: 40%), and two less likely scenarios, one upside and one downside, each assigned a 30% probability of occurring (31 December 2022: 30%). The same information is used by the Bank for other purposes such as strategic planning and budgeting. External information considered includes economic data and forecasts published by governmental bodies and monetary authorities, and the International Monetary Fund, and selected private-sector and academic forecasters. Periodically, the Bank carries out stress testing of more extreme shocks to calibrate its determination of the upside and downside representative scenarios. The Bank has applied the following Macro Economic Variables for the Corporate portfolio in conditional IFRS 9 analysis with forecast scenarios: Equity (ADX Equity Index) and Oil Price. Had the weightage to the adverse scenario been increased by another 10% with a corresponding decrease of 10% in upside scenario, the impairment loss allowance would increase by AED 16.2 million at 30 September 2023 (30 September 2022: AED 0.2 million).

5 Segmental analysis

The Bank operates in one geographical area, the United Arab Emirates, and its results arise largely from commercial and retail banking activities.

6 Valuation of financial instruments and other assets

Fair value hierarchy

Recurring and non-recurring fair value measurements

The Bank measures fair value using the following fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements:

- Level 1: Quoted market price (unadjusted) in an active market for an identical instrument. Such instruments are valued by reference to unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets where the quoted price is readily available, and the price represents actual and regularly occurring market transactions.
- Level 2: Valuation techniques based on observable inputs, either directly (i.e., as prices) or indirectly (i.e., derived from prices). This category includes instruments valued using: quoted market prices in active markets for similar instruments; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are considered less than active; or other valuation techniques where all significant inputs are directly or indirectly observable from market data.
- Level 3: Valuation techniques using significant unobservable inputs. This category includes all instruments where the valuation technique includes inputs not based on observable data and the unobservable inputs have a significant impact on the instrument's valuation. This category includes instruments that are valued based on quoted prices for similar instruments where significant unobservable adjustments or assumptions are required to reflect differences between the instruments.

All financial assets and liabilities are measured at amortised cost except for financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and investments at FVOCI and other non-financial assets which are measured at fair value by reference to published price quotations in an active market or from prices quoted by counterparties or through use of valuation techniques.

Fair values of assets and liabilities that are traded in active markets are based on quoted market prices or dealer priced quotations. For all other assets and liabilities, the Bank determines fair values using valuation techniques.

Valuation techniques include net present value and discounted cash flow models. Assumptions and inputs used in valuation techniques include risk-free and benchmark interest rates, credit spreads and other inputs used in estimating discount rates. The objective of valuation techniques is to arrive at a fair value determination that reflects the price of the financial instrument and other assets at the reporting date that would have been determined by market participants acting at arm's length.

Observable prices and model inputs are usually available in the market for listed equity securities. Availability of observable market prices and model inputs reduces the need for management judgement and estimation and also reduces the uncertainty associated with determination of fair values. Availability of observable market prices and inputs varies depending on the products and markets and is prone to changes based on specific events and general conditions in the financial markets.

Towards the end of 2022, the Bank carried out an evaluation exercise of the investment properties through qualified, independent external valuers, the valuation methodologies used by the external valuers include:

- Direct comparable method: This method seeks to determine the value of the property from transactions of comparable properties in the vicinity applying adjustments to reflect differences to the subject property.
- Investment method (income capitalization & DCF): The income capitalization method has been used to assess the value of the property by capitalising the net operating income of the property at an appropriate yield after allowing for appropriate maintenance and vacancies. A net yield range of 6% to 8.5% (2022: 6% to 8.5%) has been applied which reflects what an investor would expect for an investment of the duration of the interest being valued for the respective properties.

A further independent valuation has not been performed as of 30 September 2023 and management believes that fair value on the reporting date is not materially different from carrying value.

The Bank has disposed investment properties of AED 123.8 million during the nine-month period ended 30 September 2023 (30 September 2022: AED 88.3 million).
